

Carly Thornton MSc (CABC); PGCE; BSc (Hons); RVN; FHEA

Carly is a RCVS Registered Veterinary Nurse with an honours degree in Veterinary Nursing Science. During her time in small animal veterinary practice, she worked in both first opinion and referral practices, developing particular interests in medical veterinary nursing, client care and veterinary nurse training. Carly joined University Centre Hartpury as a Veterinary Nursing Lecturer in 2008 and completed a Post Graduate Certificate in Education. She became the Subject Manager for the Veterinary Nursing Department in 2016. Carly holds an MSc in Companion Animal Behaviour Counselling from the University of Southampton.

Sarah Vivian BSc (Hons) RVN

Sarah is a Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons registered veterinary nurse who worked in a mixed animal, first opinion, practice but specialises in small animals. Her interests centre around the medical nursing of small animals. She joined University Centre Hartpury in March 2016 and teaches veterinary nursing to Further Education and Higher Education students. Before becoming a veterinary nurse Sarah completed an honours degree in Animal Science at Worcestershire University which opened the door to the veterinary nursing world. She recently completed a Research Fellowship with the Education and Training Foundation.